The brokenness of Christ's final week provides a challenging example of power under control. Schroeder gloriously brings to life the passion of our Lord, giving the reader the chance to feel what Jesus felt, to ask questions whose answers have seemingly alluded us, and to give answers that make biblical sense.

May 28, It is our power under Gods control. It is the ability to give of ourselves to help the hurting while at the same time confronting evil whenever necessary. Thats a tough combination, but our Lord pulled it off without a hitch. Gentleness is self-control displayed in a calm spirit based on an unshakable confidence in God. It is self-control based on Gods control. It is truly a supernatural virtue produced by the Holy Spirit. Consider Jesus. He was the most powerful man who ever lived, yet his power was always under his Fathers control. Christian self-control is not finally about bringing our bodily passions under our own control, but under the control of Christ by the power of his Spirit. Because self-control is a gift, produced in and through us by Gods Spirit, Christians can and should be the people on the planet most hopeful about growing in self-control.

II. THE POWER OF MEEKNESS Matt. b; Num. A. Strength Channeled Num. 1. This is where meekness has its real power. It enables us to control ourselves, not in having to control others. a. The best use of power is to use it over our own lives. b. God still grants Satan some authority in this world, which means that his power is not yet completely brokenexcept in one area: his power of death. Hebrews says that Jesus came as a man to die in order to destroy him who holds the power of death that is, the devil, a power Satan had held from the beginning (John).
